Principals Report
Welcome to week 1.
I hope everyone had a safe holiday, and kept as warm as possible!
On Sunday and Monday of this week I worked with my colleagues from across the Snow Gums Learning Alliance, planning lots of activities and making sure we are all up to date with the latest in educational research.
On Wednesday of this week, and Monday of next week, I will not be at school, for medical reasons. There will be no active afterschools on Wednesday or Monday. Active afterschools will resume on Wednesday of next week. I am sorry for any inconvenience to families.
I am looking forward to a fabulous term 3.

Mel Wood
Principal

Homework
This term, homework will go home on Fridays, and will be due to be returned the following Thursday. Readers can be exchanged on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Scripture
Scripture lessons will resume next week. Thank you to Mrs Edmonds for volunteering her time to provide scripture lessons for our students.
Music
Music lessons will continue this term, with Mrs Whan providing individual lessons to students. Due to our increase in numbers, students are having a lesson every second week.

Stephanie Alexander
Our Stephanie Alexander program will continue this term. The program being offered at the moment is fabulous, thanks to the planning, preparation and delivery of Mrs Jenny Fulloon. Every Monday, students work in the garden, learning about different vegetables and growing their own vegetables. Students are then involved in cooking activities, which incorporate our home grown ingredients.

Japanese
Japanese lessons will continue on Mondays, with Michi Jordan providing fun and interesting lessons. These lessons have been organised by the P&C—another example of the wonderful support Chandler students have from the P&C.

Youth Online
Talented local artist and illustrator Fiona McDonald will visit Chandler this Thursday to do an illustration workshop with our students. Other schools from around the state will join in via video conference. We are very lucky to have Fiona coming back to visit us.
