Principals Report
Welcome to week 2.
We are back in full swing at school, with a fun term of learning with our friends ahead of us.
Very important (but not school related) news- my daughter Phoebe had her first baby last week- little Isaac.

Hats
In this cold weather, many children are forgetting their hats. While this is understandable, given that we have not seen much sun, it is still important that everyone wears their hat at school. There are some spare hats at school, but in the interest of head lice control it is preferable that students wear their own hat. For any students wishing to purchase a new hat, they are available for $8 from the office.

Gymnastics
We will be going to Gymnastics in week 4 and 6 with Black Mountain Public School. A note will come home later in the week.
